

NOMINATION FORM: Annual Meeting Awards

“Green Thumb” Award: For helping the LWVMC grow and flourish. This award is given annually to an individual or committee/group who/which was instrumental in growing/expanding the local league, either in membership numbers or through expanding/growing our presence in other ways – public outreach/publicity, or through advocacy, or a project during the year that opened up new avenues for our members to be involved in more public ways.

“We Can Do It” Award: For taking on or revitalizing an existing project. This award is given to an individual or group that stepped up and undertook a project, overcoming time constraints, lack of experience, pushback and/or skepticism.

“Making Democracy Work” Award: Given to an outstanding community member. This award is a way to recognize and celebrate citizens who demonstrate committed, visionary leadership that strengthens our democracy. With this award, we honor an individual or group who has taken action to “Make Democracy Work” to benefit residents in Marquette County.
