League Activities and Ambitions

Please check any or all you would like to be involved with:

- Candidate Forums are League sponsored sessions at which local candidates for all offices are invited to participate. Many volunteers are needed from Planners to Ushers.
- Voter Guides are available in print or online. Candidates for elected office are invited to respond to specific questions about current policy issues. Volunteers are needed to call and e-mail candidates, provide data input and plan for the Voter Guide launch.
- VOTE411.org is an online database containing voter guides and other personalized information to help citizens be informed voters. Volunteers fearless with computers, websites and databases appreciated.
- Voter Registration and Education in the schools, university, and public events. The League has a training program for voter registration.
- Observer Corps volunteers attend governmental meetings to observe, summarize and report back to the League and the community.
- Internal Committees: Membership Committee/Fundraising; Communications Network; Newsletter Committee; Education Committee; Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee
- Fourth of July Parade and/or other League approved Events. Get a LWV t-shirt and join us in parades, marches, or a Marquette County flash mob.
